100% Combat Injured Veteran Receives $7500 for Poultry Farm

SSGT David Z of TX 100% combat injured: "I am a disabled veteran, I served 2 tours in Iraq as a combat medic. After being medically discharged I moved back home to Texas. However, our dream of running a farm and ranch has had some financial snags. I need some specialized equipment for raising poultry. WVfV sent over $7500 worth of incubators, poultry processing equipment and accessories."

WVfV Send $15K Commercial Drones to Vets in Alaska & Georgia

"I'm Devon and this whole photography thing started a long time ago. I had a camera in a side pouch most of the time during my 4 deployments to Iraq and Afghanistan, & during my stay at Walter Reed. I started Alaska Drone Photography but needed commercial grade drone. Now I have many clients and growing fast. Thank you, WVfV!"

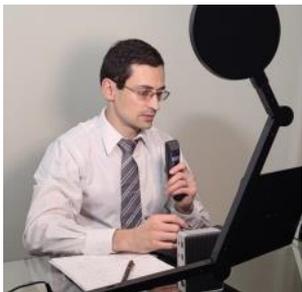

Maj. Chris Y. of GA also received a Commercial drone for his work as contractor with Homeland Security. He also prepares vets for FAA licensing.

VETERANS DAY: WVfV Made Multiple Awards on Veterans Day!

WVfV celebrated Veterans Day for all veterans, and especially for USMC Maj. Ron Reed of North Carolina. We thank Tractor Supply for their generous discount for the 196 feet of corral fencing for his unique business. It's essentially an Air B and B for horses in transit! His horse guests can stretch their legs after a day in the trailer in a beautiful and safe paddock. And a bunkhouse for the handlers. Congratulations, Maj. Reed.

USAF Vet, now Dr. Andrey S. opens practice with $8000 award

WVfV made a unique gift to USAF veteran who recently completed his education as a board-certified Child Psychiatrist. Dr. Andrey S opens a medical practice to provide psychiatric care to military children and others in his Texas office near several military bases. Thanks to an angel donor who is a USAF veteran of Vietnam War, WVfV sent $8000 worth of office electronics equipment to get him started in this critical field of medicine.
