LATEST NEWS: WVfV Helps North Dakota Purple Heart Recipient

SGT Justin Fisher fought with the North Dakota Army National Guard in Iraq in 2007-08. He was awarded the Bronze Star and received the Purple Heart for injuries resulting in 100% disability. He won't give up, and is starting Purple Heart Home Inspection business to support his family. Work Vessels for Vets recently sent him over $7500 of new tools for success. Good luck, Sgt Fisher! . ### VETERAN STORIES: Inspiring Chicago Vet and "New" Truck For Delivery Business

Army SGT Jason W. (I) of Chicago waited on the WVfV waiting list for nearly a year for the right truck to come along. He started a transportation business for intercity courier services and same day deliveries. Here he is taking the keys to a Ford F-259 Diesel truck that will help this patient vet who was wounded in Iraq as he starts a new civilian business. Rock on, Jason! Read More HERE

VETERAN STORIES: Forging Ahead!

Army SSGT Jack Williams, a triple amputee in Kentucky served in Iraq and also in Afghanistan where he was injured. He was awarded the Bronze Star for Valor and received the Purple Heart for devastating injuries. He loves the outdoors and founded Mohawk Adventures to take fellow veteran hunting. Jack is an accomplished blacksmith and wants to share his skills with fellow veterans, but he needed a specialized forge. "Blacksmithing is therapy and a good trade to know which I could pass on to other veterans to help give them a hobby and purpose in life," he writes in his application. This month, Work Vessels for Vets delivered the adapted forge he needs. Way to go, Jack! To Read More Click HERE.
