LATEST NEWS: Enterprise Builders, Inc Receives Veterans Honor

Keith Czarnecki, CEO and Vin McCurry, CFO of Enterprise Builders fought back a tear or two when Work Vessels for Vets presented the organization's cherished PATRIOT STAR AWARD to honor Enterprise Builders Inc for their years of dedication and deep commitment to veterans. For nearly a decade, the Enterprise Builders Charity Golf tournament has dedicated all proceeds to support veteran causes, totaling more than $300,000 over the years. This year's event raised $50,000 for Work Vessels for Vets! Read the full story HERE

DONOR STORY: CIRTEC Medical of Enfield, CT Donates Laptops to Injured Veterans For Their Career Studies

Just in time for the Fall Semester of college, CIRTEC Medical Company donated 15 laptops for injured veterans completing higher education programs following military service. The transition from combat to civilian careers is difficult, especially for veterans who cope with injuries. WVfV offers a "hand up" to help injured vets know they are supported as they begin to heal. It is only possible with generous donations from corporations like CIRTEC that upcycles refurbished items to help. Read More

VETERAN STORY: Non-profit Receives Sailboat to Help Reintegrate Combat Vets into Society Through Sailing

WVfV was thrilled to deliver a 33' Ericson sailboat to Pay4ward.org a non profit started by Vietnam Vet, Ray Hayes, that helps combat veterans with PTSD by taking them sailing. Thanks to an anonymous donor, Solstice will now be able to carry up to six veterans for a day sail. The veterans will have the chance to work together as a team and converse in a unique and healing environment. Read more stories HERE
